Conversational Hebrew - For Families Who Speak English At Home

Pre-School and Elementary School Classes – 1 Hour – Mondays or Sundays

For children whose families speak English at home, this class immerses children with Hebrew and Israeli traditions and gives them confidence speaking as they develop comprehension skills as well. Class is fun and creative including stories, games, arts & crafts and music. Taught in Hebrew, the pace of the class is appropriate with teachers translating as need be for the students.

Our teachers are native Hebrew speakers and credentialed Teachers. They have years of experience with pre-school aged children Americans and Israelis alike. They are passionate about Israel and share their love and enthusiasm for Israel with the children.
