

The San Diego Israel Collaborative invites you to an evening of Food, Wine & Stories:
Tastings and Tales of Food and Israel

Hosting a special guest:
Gil Hovav

Israeli culinary personality and the great grandson of Eliezer Ben-Yehuda, who renewed Hebrew as a spoken language. Gil will share stories about food, Jerusalem, love, family, and the Hebrew Language. "Gil Hovav is Gordon Ramsay, Jamie Oliver and JK Rowling all rolled into one...the multi-talented chef known by Israelis as Captain Cook"
The Jewish Chronicle

Come enjoy local cuisine from our most favorite culinary professionals in the community. Vendors will provide tastings, and the option to purchase food.

Wednesday, March 25th
 7:00PM

Online tickets: $12
 At the door: $17
www.tarbuton.com/Tarbutontickets.htm

Bottles&Wood
 Reclaim Repurpose Reward

5039 Shawline St.
 San Diego, CA 92117

Local culinary vendors who are interested to participate, please contact: youngadults@tarbuton.org

The San Diego Israel Collaborative connects Jewish and Israeli-American young adults to Israel through thought provoking workshops and "Israel Now" cultural activities. Partner organizations and volunteers plan events year round. The founding organizations Tarbuton, the Ken Jewish Community, Congregation Beth El and Temple Emanu-El warmly invite other organizations to join the collaborative.